All is going well at the matches. Everyone helps with the set up and take down of the range and it goes very quickly and smoothly, and a few are helping with the scoring.

With a bit of a break in the rain, the Saturday of the 27th turned out to be a great day to scratch our trigger fingers. A little bit of wind, and an abundance of sunshine brought out 7 shooters to try their hand at taking down some pesky critters.

JOSH WARMAN – MATCH DIRECTOR

We started the morning with the rimfire match. Frank Ledford took Match Winner. Josh Warman finished 1st in AA class, and Dave Hickerson finished 1st in B class, with a score that bumped him up to A class.

The chickens were set out at 40 meters, and the pigs at 50. The turkeys were set at 75 meters, and the rams at 100 yards. Each shooter has 10 chances at each distance to remove the silhouettes from the rail on which they rest. These animals proved to be formidable opponents for our pistols and their various sighting apparatuses.

After lunch we shot the centerfire match. Josh Warman won Match Winner. Frank Ledford finished 1st in A class. Dave Hickerson won 1st in B class after a 3-way shootoff with Bill Christine and Keith McMahan.

A great time was had by all, and we look forward to y'all joining us at our next match on March 27th.
